

NT Live: Jack Absolute Flies Again (12A)
 by Richard Bean and Oliver Chris based on Richard Brinsley Sheridan's The Rivals
 A rollicking new comedy by Richard Bean (One Man, Two Guvnors) and Oliver Chris (Twelfth Night).
 After an aerial dog fight, Pilot Officer Jack Absolute flies home to win the heart of his old flame, Lydia Languish. Back on British soil, Jack's advances soon turn to anarchy when the young heiress demands to be loved on her own, very particular terms.
 Thursday 6th October, 7.00pm
 Tickets £12

NT Live: Prima Facie (15)
 Tessa is a young, brilliant barrister. She has worked her way up from working class origins to be at the top of her game; defending; cross examining and winning. An unexpected event forces her to confront the lines where the patriarchal power of the law, burden of proof and morals diverge.
 Prima Facie takes us to the heart of where emotion and experience collide with the rules of the game.
 Thursday 21st July, 7.00pm
 Tickets £12

National Theatre Live

NT Live: Much Ado About Nothing (12A)
 by William Shakespeare, directed by Simon Godwin
 Katherine Parkinson (The IT Crowd) and John Heffernan (Dracula) lead the cast in Shakespeare's romcom of sun, sea and mistaken identity. The legendary family-run Hotel Messina on the Italian Riviera has been visited by artists, celebrities and royalty. But when the owner's daughter weds a dashing young soldier, not all guests are in the mood for love.

The Railway Children - November 2019

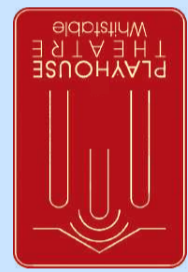

The Lindley Players have a very vibrant and active Youth Group for 13 to 18 years olds. We perform twice a year, once in a full-length play, and once in a family and friends only 'Green Room' production. Recent productions include stage adaptations of 'The Railway Children' and 'Oliver Twist'. The group enables young people to build confidence, develop their verbal communication skills and meet other like-minded people. To add your name to the mailing list or to keep up to date with auditions, please visit our website.

Join us
 The Lindley Players are an amateur drama group who own and run The Playhouse Theatre. Now in our 75th year, the company is made up of people from varied backgrounds, all joined together through our love of community theatre. A friendly and sociable group, we focus on producing high quality shows. If this sounds like a group you would like to be involved with, please do get in touch! No previous experience in theatre is required. We hold a coffee morning every Saturday from 10am-12pm at the theatre, so why not pop in and say hello?

Sex With Strangers

'Sex With Strangers' starts in a snowbound cabin designed as a reprieve for reclusive writers. Its sole occupant is Olivia: a 39-year-old writer worried about the public's scrutiny of her work. Her peace is shattered by the arrival of Ethan: a highly successful, handsome writer 10 years her junior. Ethan's work recounts his experience of having sex with a different woman each week for a year. As an ardent admirer of Olivia's work, within the beautiful snowy surroundings, the two writers discover they have a lot in common... a lot indeed.

Performances:
 Wednesday 21st to Saturday 24th September 7.45pm
 Tickets £12, Members £10

Grimm Tales

The Lindley Players Youth Group invites you to join them on their journey through some of the original Grimm Tales, re-told by master-storyteller Philip Pullman. Full of deliciously dark twists and turns from characters including Little Red Riding Hood and Rapunzel; these tales come to life in all their glittering, macabre brilliance, a delight for children and adults alike.

Performances:
 Thursday 8th to Saturday 10th December 7.45pm, Saturday 10th December 2.30pm
